

I am opposed to a weakening of the NJ Do Not Call laws. By allowing a company with whom I've conducted business within the past 18 months to contact me at will, you permit any company with whom I've terminated a relationship to contact me. If I terminate a relationship with a Company, I do not want to do business with them and do not wish to have them calling relentlessly in order to resume a relationship!